Corporate Services

D&G's Corporate Services department specialise in building strong, long-lasting relationships with large corporations and Relocation Agents. Our expertise and experience means we can deliver outstanding properties to corporate clients at premium rental rates.

Close Relationships

Our specialist department is dedicated to creating and maintaining trusted relationships with a large number of highly regarded companies. And we're in constant contact with the corporations that relocate employees to London on a regular basis.

First port of call

Relocation agents are typically used by companies to service the housing requirements of their employees. Our professionalism and responsiveness, along with our honest approach to property, means we're often their first port of call during a search.

Premium tenants

Corporate tenants are considered to be the most reliable, and will often pay a premium to live in a top-quality property. Our experience in Corporate Lettings helps us advise you on the best way of presenting your property, in order to secure this type of tenant.

What our clients say

"I work in relocation as a Home Search Consultant and as such really value the service offered to me by Douglas & Gordon, not only with the individual offices but by their Corporate Department. It saves me so much time knowing that one e-mail will get my search requirements to all the relevant offices and they in turn will contact me with properties that match my criteria."

Caroline Barker, Relocation Agent

"I find working with Douglas & Gordon very easy, as everyone is always very knowledgeable and prepared to go the extra mile. Douglas & Gordon employ the kind of people we all like working with, as we can relate well to one another. Always well-presented and good with giving brochures, even if we have received them via email before. Response times are also very good, from first initiating a search to talking with a negotiator and booking viewings. I can't fault the service and really appreciate the corporate search element as well, as it shortens our searches considerably."

Tish Tudor, Relocation Agent

"I am a senior relocation specialist and have been dealing with the rental side of Douglas & Gordon for the past seven years. During the seven years I have been dealing with them I have found them to be most professional and always seem to have the corporate style properties to suit my vast range of clients. They are a pleasure to deal with and quite refreshing that they are 100% honest with me and will not waste my time showing me properties that are not suitable. I would have no hesitation in recommending them to any corporate client or any landlord looking to rent their property."

Irma Hamilton-Hunt, Relocation Agent

"Douglas & Gordon's negotiators are some of the best in London. Always on time, polite, and know their area. Many other companies could take a leaf out of your book."
